MEDICINAL

to vigorously push a business, strength to study a profession, strength to regulate a household, strength to do a day's labor without physical pain. All this represents what is wanted, in the often heard expression, "Oh! I wish I had the strength!" If you are broken down, have not energy, or feel as if life was hardly worth living, you can be relieved and restored to robust health and strength by taking BROWN'S IRON BIT-TERS, which is a true tonic-a medicine universally recommended for all wasting diseases.

> 501 N. Fremont St., Baltimore During the war I was injured in the stomach by a piece of a shell, and have suffered from it ever since. About four years ago it brought on paralysis, which kept me in bed six months, and the best doctors in the city said I could not live. I suffered fearfully from indigestion, and for over two years could not eat solid food and for a large portion of the time was unable to retain even liquid nourishment. I tried Brown's Iron Bitters and now after taking two bottles I am able to get up and go around and am rapidly improving. G. DECKER.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is a complete and sure remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Malaria, Weakness and all diseases requiring a true, reliable, non-alcoholic tonic. It enriches the blood, gives new life to the muscles and tone to the nerves.

Parker's A Superlative Health and Strength Restorer.

Chicago Dressed Beef.

Interested parties have lately published columns of information concerning the intention of certain Chicago butchers and shippers of cattle in supplying eastern dealers with enormous supplies of Chicago dressed beef in refrigerator cars. The Chicago Tribune has the following facts:

"The stock yards and the Jackson-street market are every day sending out, to be eaten by the unsuspecting people of Chicago, thousands of pounds of meat little better than carrion. The revelations which have been made during the last fortnight by the Tribung's reporters who have followed the Tribune's reporters, who have followed the ghoulish traffic from the incoming cattle cars through the slaughter-pens of the stock yards to the stalls of the Jackson-street market, are enough to make vegetarians of the whole population.

"For want of a State inspectoin at the stock yards, and for want of a performance of duty at the market by the city inspectors, all the diseased, dying and disabled cattle of the whole country round about us that can be got into Chicago before life becomes extinct are brought here, slaugthered and eaten. The rule of the the business is that anything that is not dead before the slaughter-house knife can get to its throat is good enough for Chicago people to eat. Cows with feculunt sores, beeves with flesh poisoned by the torture of broken limbs, calves prematurely born in the slaughter house of diseased mothers just killed, sheep with the snuffles, consumptive cattle cough ing purulent matter, victims of the swine, plague, living carrion-anything; in fact. that is not stone dead carrion—passes muster as fit food. Gangrenous, cancerous, feverish, phthisical, tuberculous, scrofulous animals are killed and sold, and go into the blood of the children, men and women of

"While the board of health and sanitary engineeer and latter-day plumbers and anxious parents are standing guard over soil pipes and catch basins, the germs of trichiniasis, typhoid, consumption, and scrofula and vermicular horrors are placed upon the family table. Pasteur, Bastian, Tyndall and Koch are studying out under the microscope the secrets of the growth of these infinitesimal devilfish of disease, while our stockyard scalpers and their confederate ghouls, the butchers, are introducing into our stomachs every species of malignant microbe that infests animal life. Science has demonstrated beyond a cavil that the spors, bacteria, tubercles, microbes, germs of the diseases of men and animals are intercommuni-

"There is no State law to reach this outrage. The State board of health was able to exercise some control over the Texas fever in 1869, but its power does not extend to these chronic plagues that we have with us

LIKE ANGELS.—Angels come here on the lowliest of errands. When Lazarus, the beggar, died, and they were told to go and car ry him to Abraham's bosom, they did not shrug their shoulders, but went, no doubt, cheerfully and gladly. When one of them was sent into the wilderness to cook a meal for Elijah, he did not scorn the humble mission. They have charge of God's children, who are stumbling through life to hold them up in their hands, and they are not to proud to minister thus to the lowiest and feeblest of saints. "He shall give his angels charge concerning thee, and in their hands they shall bear thee up."
"Are they not all ministering spirits sent forth to minister for those who shall be heirs of salvation?" If we hope to be like angels in heaven, we ought to try to be like them on earth. There is a great deal of angel work too be done here, and it is the noblest work that we can do. All lowly service to God's little ones allies us with the loftiest spirits that stand around His throne.

A NEW USE FOR DYNAMITE.-Cigar smokers in Hungary are in rather an auxious state since M. Muller, of the town of lzaged, found himself suddenly hurled on his back among the cinders on the hearth in NOTICE, LADIES-We have now in store a full line of LADIES FINE HAND SEWED BOOTS, suitable for fall and winter. These goods ner weed. It transpired, on examination, that the cigar had contained a tiny glass give entire satisfaction. The verdict of the ladies who have used these goods is that they are raost comfortable, beautiful, durable and the cheapest that they have used these goods is that they are raost should be s were many others among the stock on the shelves of the bureau de tabac which were similarly prepared. The Austrian police an outrage could have been committed; but, meanwhile, there is a decided turn on the part of smokers in favor of pipes, the cigar trade at Izaged especially being well nigh paralyzed. Of course we like to hear of socialistic designs ending in smoke, but not in tobacco smoke. That is quite another thing .- London Figro.

Bad Breath; Pain in the Side, sometimes the pain is felt under the Shoulder-blade, mistaken for Rheumatism; general loss of appetite; Bowels generally costive, sometimes alternating with lax; the head is troubled with pain, is dull and heavy, with considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of leaving undone something which ought to have been done; a slight, dry cough and flushed face is sometimes an attendant, often mistaken for consumption; the patient complains of weariness and debility; nervous, easily startled; feet cold or burning, sometimes a prickly sensation of the skin exists; spiris are low and despondent, and, although satisfied that exercise would be beneficial, yet one can hardly summon up fortitude to try it—in fact, distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but enses have occurred when but few of them existed, yet examination after death has shown the Liver to have been extensively deranged.
